

COCKTAIL BAR

Águapreta

Águapreta nace del mestizaje de culturas, de la eterna búsqueda por comprender un mundo tan variado y cambiante. En esa búsqueda de una respuesta tan sencilla y, a la vez, tan compleja como es la existencia misma, hemos aprendido a encontrar en cada persona y en cada experiencia vital dulce, salada, amarga, ácida no necesariamente la respuesta definitiva, pero sí un equilibrio con todo lo que nos rodea. Esta es la experiencia que queremos compartir con ustedes: nuestra historia. La historia de un bartender que nació en Brasil, creció en España y tuvo la oportunidad de conocer y rodearse de personas de todo el mundo.

Águapreta borns from the mixture of cultures. The eternal searching of understanding of our global and changing world. The searching of an easy and difficult at the same time, life meaning. That searching lead us, to seek in every person and every experience sweet, salty, bitter, sour....Not even the live meaning, but the understanding of our environment. The experience that we want to show, is our history. The history of our barman. Who was born in brasil, grew up in spain and surrounds himself with people from every where in the globe.

A still life photograph featuring a large, rounded glass filled with a golden, frothy beverage, likely non-alcoholic beer. The glass sits on a wooden cutting board. To the right of the glass is a woven basket containing several lemons, one of which is sliced open. A knife with a wooden handle lies on the cutting board in the foreground. The background is dark and out of focus.

The image is a collage of two food-related photographs. The top photograph shows several slices of crusty bread topped with a thick layer of red tomato and a drizzle of olive oil, served on a decorative ceramic plate with a blue floral pattern. The bottom photograph shows a close-up of a wooden plate filled with slices of jamón (cured ham), highlighting the marbled texture of the meat and fat. The word "Comida" is written in a white, elegant script font across the center of the image, overlapping both photographs.
