Salade César

A top-down view of a meal on a dark grey plate. The main dish is two pieces of entrecôte matorée, which are thick, tender steaks with a golden-brown, slightly charred crust. Above the steaks are three pieces of roasted vegetables: a large orange carrot, a long white asparagus spear, and a yellow squash. Below the steaks, there is a pile of sautéed mushrooms with green herbs, a single round golden-brown fried potato, and a small white bowl filled with a dark red sauce.
